

Medals of Honor and Missionettes Celebration—A Parent’s Preview

Medals of Honor

Medals of Honor

Girls are given special awards at each club level for completing all requirements for the honor level of achievement. Special honor is given as girls continue to proceed through the Missionettes club levels with Medals of Honor. Girls may earn all three Medals of Honor.

Bronze Medal of Honor

The Bronze Medal of Honor is awarded to a girl who has attained the honor level of achievement for any three Missionettes clubs (not including Rainbows).

Silver Medal of Honor

The Silver Medal of Honor is awarded to a girl who has attained the honor level of achievement for any four Missionettes clubs (not including Rainbows).

Gold Medal of Honor

The Gold Medal of Honor is the highest level of achievement in the Missionettes program. It is awarded to a girl who has attained the honor level of achievement for all five Missionettes clubs (not including Rainbows).

Girls who wish to earn the Medals of Honor may complete the requirements for up to two previous club levels. All girls completing a previous club’s requirements should do so in a supervised club setting, not as a correspondence course or independent project.

Missionettes Celebration

The purpose of the Missionettes Celebration is three-fold:

1. To recognize all girls and their achievements at the time of promotion to the next club
2. To provide an evangelistic service for unchurched parents, family, and friends
3. To bring glory and honor to Jesus Christ our Lord

The annual graduation ceremony is called a Missionettes Celebration. All clubs participate in one ceremony—the Missionettes Celebration. The ceremony recognizes all Rainbows and Honor Rainbows; Daisies and Honor Daisies; Prims and Honor Prims; Stars and Honor Stars; Friends and Friends Graduates; Girls Only and Girls Only Graduates; and finally the Bronze Medal of Honor, Silver Medal of Honor, and Gold Medal of Honor recipients.

Note: The Missionettes Celebration is an annual event generally held at the culmination of the Missionettes year. Less formal “Awards Presentations” to award badges and certificates may be held on a quarterly or semi-annual basis. The frequency of the Awards Ceremonies is left to the local coordinator’s discretion.
